A Debut to Remember: Midnight Fusic Forevermore 2025
Set to Light Up Zepp Kuala Lumpur on 14 September

Mark your calendars for a night of musical magic as Midnight Fusic takes the stage for their long-awaited first-ever solo concert, Midnight Fusic Forevermore 2025, set to be held at Zepp Kuala Lumpur.

Formed in 2013, Midnight Fusic has built a strong and dedicated fanbase both locally and internationally. Consisting of Arif Kamarudin (vocals, guitar), Adrian Danial (vocals, guitar), Firdaus Azmi (bass), and Muaz Rabbani (drums), the band delivers a compelling fusion of alternative rock and rich pop melodies — complete with catchy hooks, emotive vocals, and dynamic instrumentation that resonates with both rock fans and mainstream listeners alike. The year 2024 saw Midnight Fusic's momentum reach new heights as the band graced a variety of live events including Rihh, MLBB 8th Anniversary Music Party, YSL Beauty, Zus: Lokal Kasi Vocal, and Last Dinosaurs: Live in KL.

Expanding their footprint beyond Malaysian borders, the band also performed in South Korea at the Incheon Record Platform 2024 and Newtro Rhythm Global Music Tour 2024. Previously, they've appeared at We The Fest in Indonesia and Baybeats in Singapore. They also opened for international acts such as Boys Like Girls Comes to Asia and LANY Live in Kuala Lumpur.

The band's vibrant musical journey was further amplified with the release of their latest EP, Modus Operandi, on 23 May 2025, following their self-titled debut album in February 2021. Their 2020 single Sandiwara marked a significant moment as their first ever Malay-language track.

Now, with all the pieces in place, 14 September 2025 is set to be a sweet and momentous date — much like the taste of Caramel Cream — as the band, who was crowned Band of the Year at The Platform Awards 2020, presents their most important show yet: their first and biggest concert to date.

Titled Midnight Fusic Forevermore 2025, this concert marks a new beginning for the band and their fans, who will come together at Zepp Kuala Lumpur from 8:00 PM. Presented by OYOLLO ASIA, the organizers believe this is the perfect time to spotlight the band.

"OYOLLO ASIA is proud to present Midnight Fusic Forevermore 2025, the band's first-ever solo concert. As a Malaysian company, we're passionate about championing next-generation musical talent. Midnight Fusic represents everything the future of music should be — bold, highly talented, local, and globally relevant," said Mr. Kenny Wong, Managing Director of OYOLLO ASIA.

He added, “This concert is more than a performance; it’s a celebration of youth, creativity, Malaysian talent, and also Midnight Fusic’s 10th anniversary. Their unique blend of indie rock and heartfelt storytelling has captured the hearts of Malaysian youth over the past decade.”

“We’re truly honoured to support Midnight Fusic on this exciting journey and invite all fans and music lovers to be part of this defining moment. It will be a special night — one-of-a-kind, and utterly unforgettable.”

For Midnight Fusic, this concert is an opportunity to connect more intimately with fans — whether they’ve followed the band loudly or quietly over the years.

““We’re bringing a brand-new setlist, a new song, & new visuals — the whole experience is something fresh. I’m genuinely excited to connect with our fans in this new way. This show isn’t just another gig; it’s a new chapter for MF. I am looking forward to be together in a space with our fans where everyone can come together as one and share our journey,” said Arif, the band’s vocalist.

The band considers 14 September a dream come true, born out of their love for music and deep appreciation for fan support.

““I think it’s because the whole concept is like us making the show for our fans. We’re coming back with this concert again with more new songs. We curated the setlist to have a storyline. I’m excited to go through that journey of storytelling, of the past of MF and showcasing the new stuff as well.

I know the best moment will be when the first song hits. The anticipation is going to be so hype, the buildup will be so nice, and when the song finally drops, everyone is just immersed. We’ll all be in sync — the song, the beat, the crowd, all of us,” said Muaz, the drummer.

“Celebrate our 10 years together. Midnight Fusic Forever and More!” added Adrian and Firdaus.

Expect a night filled with the band’s signature vocal dynamics — Arif and Adrian’s vocal chemistry, paired with the refined musicianship of Firdaus and Muaz, will create an unforgettable 90-minute experience. Midnight Fusic promises not only music, but also a full sensory showcase — with thoughtfully curated visuals, themes, and even scents filling the venue.
